In the night there was a storm,
at the beach where she was born
And Idun felt a feeling wrong, and so she walked there in the dawn
And in a flute, the magic horn, a tune so passionate and strong
She played for them an Orca song, to ask them where they all have gone.

Visitor Information

Location
Lincoln Park
8011 Fauntleroy Way SW
Seattle, WA  98136

PARK HOURS & Info
Dawn to dusk. Lincoln Park includes 4.6 miles of walking paths, 3.9 miles of bike trails, five picnic shelters, acres of playfields and an outdoor heated saltwater pool.

Parking
There are two Park parking lots along Fauntleroy Way SW. Parking Lot #2 (lower), has roughly 40 spaces and 4 ADA spots; the Main (upper) Lincoln Park Parking lot, has roughly 80 spaces and 5 ADA spots. Street parking is also available.

Trail Accessibility
From Parking lot #2, a roughly 0.3 miles paved trail toward Coleman Pool is accessible for all. From the Main parking lot, you can hike down to the beach via dirt and gravel forest trails (about 1 mile each way).

Restrooms
Restrooms are located at the beach, concession and wading pool locations. Restrooms are open from 7am-7pm. There is an accessible restroom at the Main (upper) Parking lot.

Public Transportation
King County Metro bus via Rapid Ride C Line. You can also plan your visit by bus using TOTAGO.

Troll Pro Transpo Tip
There is a ferry from West Seattle (Fauntleroy) to Vashon Island. This is a good 2-troll day. Please visit WSDOT for ferry routes and schedules, or download the WSDOT or Ferry Friend app.

Geocaching
Adventure highlights
This adventure invites you to observe incredible bluff and beachfront views of Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains.

Info on the artist: Thomas Dambo