There’s something in the air that makes my belly rumble. Something smells so strong, it hit me, almost makes me stumble. Could it be the little people cooking something smelly in the big red cookie jar, so I can put it in my belly...

Location
Nordic Northwest
8800 SW Oleson Road
Portland, OR 97223

Hours & Info
9am-5pm Mon-Fri
9am-3pm Sat-Sun
Admission is free and available during daylight hours. Docent led troll walks and tours of the cultural center are available. Gift shop and cafe welcome visitors.

Parking
Nordic NW has two ample parking lots (50 spaces) with overflow parking available on 80th and Scholls Ferry. The upper lot includes one step up a curb and has a slightly steep entrance. The entrances to Nordia House are ADA accessible via ramp.

Trail Accessibility
Fine gravel paths to the troll are traversable by walking assistance devices and wheelchairs, but may be difficult. The distance to the troll from both the upper and lower parking lots is less than 0.25 miles.

Restrooms
Restrooms are open during regular hours and have accessible stalls.

Public Transportation
Trimet buses 43 and 45.

Geocaching
Adventure highlights
This adventure takes you on a guided tour of the Nordic Northwest campus, including an historic cabin, wetlands, a rain garden and more.

Info on the artist: Thomas Dambo